Welcome to Dr. Max Klinik's Neighborhood Clinic. I am Winnie, his Nurse. Before we begin, I will have to get some of your information for our files. It's all routine, for sure. Please take a seat. Now, shall we begin?

First question: What is your name?

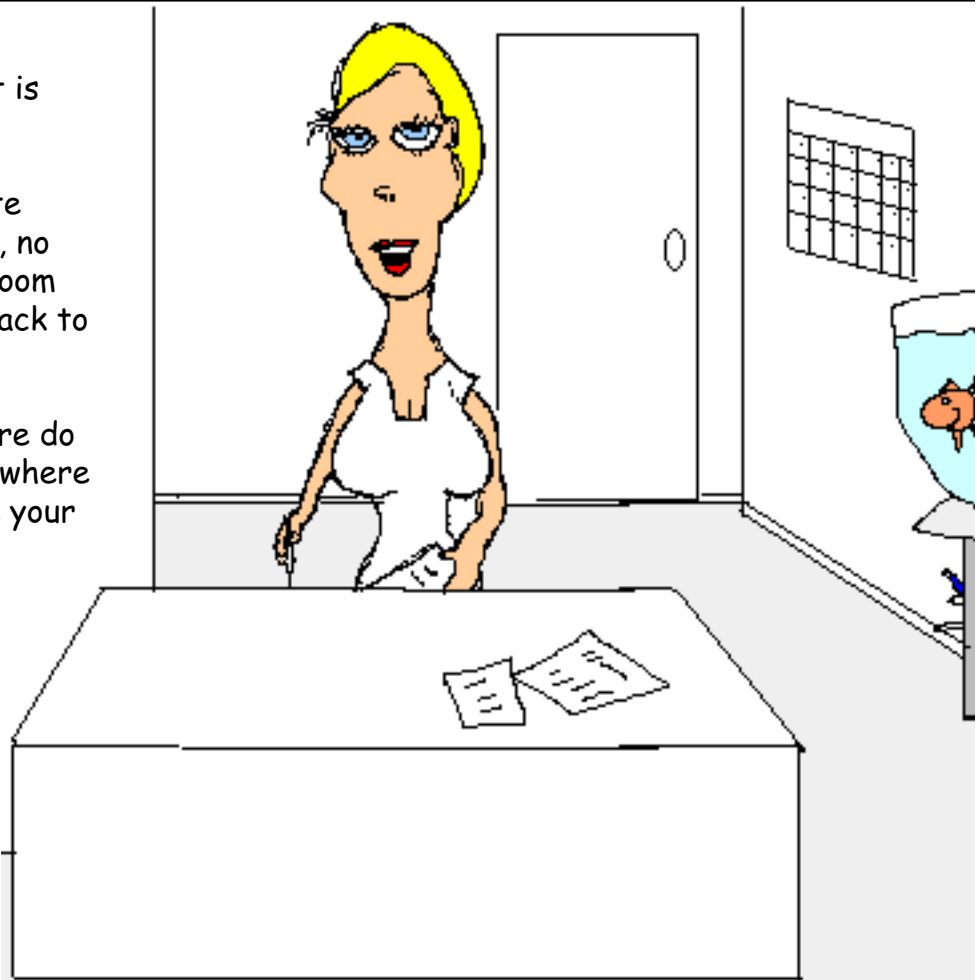

Hmmm.... don't quite remember . . . no, no, no that is the waiting room number. We'll get back to that one.

Next question: Where do you live? You know, where you sleep, eat, store your stuff?

HOME!

Good. That's a start. You live at Home. Any specific kind of Home?

MY HOME!
